Subject: Recap of Seven Corners Mtg with Supervisor Smyth

John,
Sorry for all the calls. I was trying to catch you right after our meeting but I figured I'd email you instead...

On Friday, FCDOT and county staff (including Barbara and I) provided Supervisor Smyth an update on the Seven Corners Study and the proposed transportation network.

She didn't provide a whole lot of reaction with the exception of the two proposed transportation networks. She vehemently objected to Concept C and stated that she would not support it because of the increased traffic onto South Street in her jurisdiction. She stated her preference to Concept B because she believes it will actually reduce the amount of traffic on South Street as opposed to the configuration that exists today.

Call me if you want to discuss the meeting further.
JoAnne
