Thank's for the kind words. I believe that it will all work out for the best! You know that I'm there for you if ever needed.
Best,
JT

Thanks, John. Despite the nastygrams in the blog about my "lack of leadership," I think we took some giant steps this week that will lead to a successful conclusion after the first of the year. Your role is critical, and I so appreciate you hanging in there. We certainly averted the other kind of "hanging!"

Good morning Penny:

I am pleased to report that last night the 7 corners Land Use and Transportation Task Force "Voted Unanimously" to approve the Seven Corners Comprehensive Plan Amendment except for area C. Area C (the subject of a special study) with the understanding that when the special study for area C is completed those recommendations for area C will be folded into the awaiting plan amendment and then the whole amendment will proceed to the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors for their action.

The meeting was attended by about 50 community representatives and I can say that from those individuals that spoke to me afterwards there was a very positive reaction to the action taken by the Task Force.
I have attached a draft of my remarks including the poll of members for your use if needed.

Best,
John
